[Billy Danze]

You can find me on the back block; e'rybody know me

Index fingers up, PUT IT IN THE AIR!

[Jay-Z]

You 'bout to witness the most intelligent ignorant shit you gonna hear in the miserable life that you livin; I hope that you diggin
it
I ain't no dif-fer-ent from any nigga livin in the hood whose attitude is "I wish a nigga would"
Your fam might as well kiss you goodbye, they'll miss you for good
No more Mr. Nice Guy, listen to the hook
PUT IT IN THE AIR! Homey I'll put you in the air Feel the fury of a feather trigger nigga if you near The I gets sparked, Allah-u Akbar can't even save you I will break you what you high on puff?
I kill niggaz with my own thoughts
Yeah I'm guilty as charged, nigga it's my own fault
Homey you walkin through hell with nylon socks, my nine pump cough
I'll make you wind up in the basement with DJ Satan
Your boy got the crown nigga, my replacement ain't been born yet
Y'all realize this ain't a song yet?

[Chorus Two]

[ad libs to end]
