

Beautiful

Madilyn Bailey

Hello I know it been awhile wonder where you are and if you think of me sometimes
cause your always on my mind you know I had it rough trying to forget you but the more that I look around the more I realize your all I'm looking for

What makes you so beautiful is you dont know how beautiful
you are to me
your not trying to perfect nobodys perfect
but you to me
Its how you take me breath away fill the words I dont say
and I wish somehow
I could say them now

Just friends
Beginning or the end
how do make sense
when we're on our own
Its like your the other half of me
I feel incomplete
I should have known Nothing in the world compares
To the feeling that shared Its so not fair

What makes you so beautiful
you are to me
your not trying to perfect
nobodys perfect
but you to me
Its how you take me breath away
fill the words I dont say
and I wish somehow
I could say them now

Its not you
blame it all on me
I was running from myself Cause I couldnt tell eye deep that we we were gonna be I was scared it's destiny but it hurts like hell I hope its not to late just a twist of fate

What makes you so beautiful

you are to me
but you to me
