

Crescent Of The Moon

Madilyn Bailey

Life is made of memories
Short but ever sweet
Like a soft kiss blown on the breeze
And they're waiting for you
If life is a hit or miss
Then I'd ask for only this
I'd whisper my one wish
On the wind hope it finds you
But if you, you want to
Break all the rules
Well I'd do that, I'd do that for you
But tonight I want to dance with you
I want to lose track of the time
Watch the hours pass us by
I want to dance with you
Oh I want to dance with you
On the crescent of the moon
Well time is a funny thing
It slows down when you're suffering
But rushes by when everything
Is so wonderful
With time there's never quite enough
But I find no reason to rush
As the sun is setting on us
Take in the beauty of the night
So clap, clap your hands
Take mine and we'll dance
Lose yourself in the rhythm as we sway
Let the star light guide our way, our way
