Made your acquaintance late one night You were floating around You know you gave me quite a fright You didn't seem like an ordinary man More like a ray of light

You transcendentally imposed yourself upon my bed You know you didn't say very much I'm out of body and I feel so good in my head You know I'm really quite touched

I wake up with your fragrance and it's all over me What cologne do you wear?
I walk around with a smile on my face, 'cause you're close to me Well I know you're somewhere

Gonna take my chance on a different kind of romance A supernatural thing Gonna have my fill, it gives me such a big thrill to be with A supernatural thing

I stay uplifted for quite some time (or: You say you've lived here for quite some time)
And I'd say that your skills as a lover are very refined
You know just what I want and I don't have to ask
Are you reading my mind?

You're not demanding for a man, that's really quite rare You're not the least bit obsessed with your hair You're not upset when I come home later than ten For a ghost you're a very good friend

I've got to be a very careful, never know what the neighbors would sa y
They already think I'm crazy
I wouldn't like to wake up and find myself in the family way

I can't see you (so hot)
I know you're out there you little rascal
Stop that

Gonna take my pants off for a different kind of romance That super-duper naturally big thing It's outrageously large (Super-duper, supernatural, so hot, so hot, supernatural)

A ghost baby?
