

Promises

Maggie Reilly

Promises, your promises, a gift you gave to me
Lies and broken promises, oh why did I believe
Treated me so badly, treated me so cruel
How could you betray me, take me for a fool

Promises, your promises, oh vain and foolish me
You tricked me with your promises, so blind I could not see
How could you beguile me, when I needed you
Surely I have been deceived, when I thought you true

Always
Always

Promises, your promises, a trail of broken dreams
All your lies and promises were never what they seemed
Treated me so badly, treated me so cruel
How could you betray me, take me for a fool

Always
Always
Always
Always

Always
Always

Always - you broke my heart and threw away
Always - the love I gave you every day
Always - there's nothing left that I can say
Always - look after number one
Always - you broke my heart and set me free
Always - oh how you lied and cheated me
Always - so now I know how things must be
Always - look after number one
Always - you broke my heart and threw away
Always - this love I gave you every day
Always - there's nothing left for me to say
Always - look after number one
