

All You Believe In

Magnum

It's your choice
Don't give in
Cos today's sorrow
Brings you down
Turns you round
Breaks your dream losing control
See the people just turn into grey
There's no rainbow
Sacred heart
Fall from grace
Now

Say goodbye
It's not the end
As you lie sleeping
I recall
What you said
Words you were speaking
Every night
Every day
Not for sale
No you can't be bought
Please don't cry
It's not the end
All that you believe in

A disgrace
That's what it is
We all carry
You can hide
And deny
Giving a free man his pride
Know that destiny never looks back
There's the ransom
To be paid
Every day
Yeah!

Say goodbye
It's not the end
As you lie sleeping
I recall
What you said
Words you were speaking
Every night
Every day
Not for sale
No you can't be bought
Please don't cry
It's not the end
All that you believe in

I don't know
What to say any more
And the elevator's stuck on your floor
But you still just can't open the door
Yeah!

Say goodbye
It's not the end
As you lie sleeping
I recall
What you said
Words you were speaking
Every night
Every day
Not for sale
No you can't be bought
Please don't cry
It's not the end
All that you believe in
