

Don't Fall Asleep

Magnum

You know I'll stand by your side
When you happen to fall
With arms open wide
And you feeling so small

You hold on to me
And I'll, I'll make it all right
You're desperate to see
So then I'll turn on your light

Too tired to walk
Too drowsy to think or talk

Don't fall asleep and fear the raging storm
Just let your magic lantern burn
Don't fall asleep, that's where all dreams are born
Until the pages have been turned

Because some people get caught
But we've all something to hide
They, they give it no thought
Carry on like they were blind

Tell me how you feel
If it's good or if it's bad
Try not to conceal
Or deny all that you have

Too tired to walk
Too drowsy to think or talk

Don't fall asleep and fear the raging storm
Just let your magic lantern burn
Don't fall asleep, that's where all dreams are born
Until the pages have been turned

Speak of truth and life
In our fragile hands
Everything is changing
Crossing no-man's land
Stranded by our lies
Caught up in the rain
No one can explain

Don't fall asleep and fear the raging storm
Just let your magic lantern burn
Don't fall asleep, that's where all dreams are born
Until the pages have been turned

Don't fall asleep and fear the raging storm
Just let your magic lantern burn
Don't fall asleep, that's where all dreams are born
Now the pages have been turned
