

So Cold the Night

Magnum

So cold the night
That darkens every waking hour
Let me in
I shall devour, all within

I hear the sound
The earth does tremble at my feet
Skies explode
At last we meet, anger flows

So sad, oh
So sad, oh

The wings that flew me here were glad
Like before I've never had
But there's always tomorrow
Strange dreams of sorrow

So sad, oh
So sad, oh

Deny me now
A thousand years would serve me well
But for me
Who can tell? Who can see?

I ride the storm
Of tearful faces wrapped in pain
Here I am
Am I to blame, if I ran?

So sad, oh
So sad, oh
So sad, oh

I ride the storm
Of tearful faces wrapped in pain
Here I am
Am I to blame?
