

Storm Baby

Magnum

Maybe you're just defenseless
Maybe it's that you don't care
Maybe it knocked you quite senseless
Maybe it's life that's unfair

Now there's nothing to say
Oh you, you and your foolish pride
Yeah, there's nothing to say
When things don't go your way

Well you were born
Into the dark
You were a storm baby

Ragged and torn
Broken apart
So uninformed, crazy

Nobody's gonna help you if you need it
Nobody's gonna care

Promises made
Brighter the spark
Still not afraid? Tell me

Tell me now how you're feeling
Are you... are you still hurt?
So bad when there's no healing
That's true - it's one thing you've learned

Now you had it all
Then you lost it everything
Oh, you had it all
Left alone uncalled

Well you were born
Into the dark
You were a storm baby

Ragged and torn
Broken apart
So uninformed, crazy

Nobody's gonna help you if you need it
Nobody's gonna care

Promises made
Brighter the spark
Still not afraid? Tell me

You're, you're dressed up like a queen
Sad written in your eyes
These, these pages unforeseen
You, you didn't realize

Well you were born
Into the dark

You were a storm baby

Ragged and torn
Broken apart
So uninformed, crazy

Nobody's gonna help you if you need it
Nobody's gonna care

Promises made
Brighter the spark
Still not afraid? Tell me

Well you were born
Into the dark
You were a storm baby

Ragged and torn
Broken apart
So uninformed, crazy

Nobody's gonna help you if you need it
Nobody's gonna care

Promises made
Brighter the spark
