I see so many soldiers, falling down. So I stand on my feet, I won't ever quit, I won't touch the gro und So many soldiers, falling down (falling down, down) I can hear them calling out for me, but I just can't turn back. I gotta keep movin' on Yea, My heart is made of stone and my body's numb Feelin' like I'm empty all my feelin's gone The friends I used to have is now the ones that's gone Circumstances in the street left me all alone Wasn't feelin' much, at times I felt like givin' up Then a voice inside my head told me to live it up, to the limit ves Live it like it's limitless, Keep on movin' like my friends was still here livin' this. Can't believe I went to all my nigga's funerals So I keep on ballin' like my dogs would want me too Never forgotten, boy our liquor glasses in the air Keep on livin', screamin', "One day I'ma meet you there!" 'I gotta turn it up on this one Jimmy' Keep on movin', keep on pushin', hopin' that the Lord don' hear d me I just got a couple questions: Why my homeboys left so early? Why you never took me wit 'em? Why you left me here to miss 'em? Why you let my cousin kill hisself and left me here to feel it? Lift my spirits, lift my spirits, this all real this not just 1 Drink my pain with vodka and pineapple juice in a cup and stir it. Pop a bottle, guess I'm ballin' Catch me God I feel I'm fallin' I can hear my loved ones callin' Been wide up since 5 in the mornin' Keep on goin', keep on goin', feelin' like the Worlds been clos in' I stare at the stars and hope that all my friends could see me This is for my fallin' soldiers, I can feel you on my shoulders There's a piece of me that died with you, if you ever noticed
