

Fighting Till The End

Majesty

There are Times whe i walk alone at Night, but i never loose my Faith

And i know that Life is a constant Fight, i will run into that Maze

I believe that my Heart is strong, it will guide me on my Way
I will live my Life, i will sing my Songs, all until my final D ay

It's my Revolution, i'll always live my Dreams
And when others say that's not their Way, there is Freedom they can not see

All my Life i keep on fighting, i am fighting 'till the End
And if you just live your Lies then go away and fuck yourself
I will always keep believing, i will never loose my Stance
Let my Hope stop all my Griefing, you can join me and fly my Fr

When the Rocks of Hate block my Path of Fate
I will smash them loud and wild
You can join my Friend, it's not too late
