Majesty

The serpent sign, the chosen one.
Now the demons waiting for the night to come
The sound of thunder, a bloody scene
Everybody screams on Halloween

Deep in the shadow there's a beast of hate
Awaiting his time to come
The bringer of darkness will fulfill his fate
All know it is Satan's son

They heard the call, demonic knights
Their spirits sent into the night

The serpent sign, the chosen one.
Now the demons wait for the night to come
The sound of thunder, a bloody scene
Everybody screams on Halloween

The houses are burning when the witches fly
They search for some virgin blood
They're hunting the weak who now are bound to die
May their corpses rot

They heard the call, demonic knights
Their spirits sent into the night

The serpent sign, the chosen one.
Now the demons wait for the night to come
The sound of thunder, a bloody scene
Everybody screams on Halloween

"The spirits are waiting
Now dark souls awake
The red Moon is rising
A night filled with hate
The black beast is calling
Demonic its scream
A heart filled with anger
On Halloween"
