

Pray And Die

Majesty

In a time when the evil starts to rise
A time, when fire burns in your eyes
Emotionally destructed, frightened and depressed every day
Heavy stones and barriers made of blood on your way
The only thing you can do is cry
Pray And Die

Everything is terrorized, everything's burned down
Everybody's telling lies, when you walk around
You don't know where to go, no place you can hide
And they will get you soon, no chance to fight

Pray And Die

All the friends you had are dead. All you knew is gone
Destruction lies ahead. The way is so long
You're tired and your body hurts, blood is on your hands
And if you think you survive... there is no chance

[4x Chorus]
