

Rebels Of Our Time

Majesty

I am calling all the last ones, who seek purpose for their Life
When you're tired of the Shit just escape from their daily Grind

There are many Rebels out there, now we're fighting Side by Side

Come along and you see that your Heart is still young and wild

Revolution will never end

Join the Union

And raise your Hand

All across the Universe

Our Voices will be heard

This is our Life and it is Prime

Come and sing along my Friend

Never walk alone again

We are the Rebels of our Time

Rebels of our Time

Hey

Hey

We all take the fucking World now

Now the young ones rule the Streets

In the Name of our fate let them hear our Freedom Beat

We all live a big Adventure, overcome their imposed fear

We are gathering tonight and we sing that they all can hear

Revolution will never end

Join the Union

And raise your Hand

All across the Universe

Our Voices will be heard

This is our Life and it is Prime

Come and sing along my Friend

Never walk alone again

We are the Rebels of our Time

Rebels of our Time

Hey

Hey

Oooohhooohooohhhh

Oooohhooohooohhhh
