

Bleed Us Free

Malevolent Creation

Tearing his way to the sun
His vision is still unclear to me
Begging for the prophecy
His ritual's written in stone
Inked in hardened blood
Ancient rites now bleed us free
Free from the ways of our race
This untold prophecy

Bleed us free from death
Bleed us free from hope
Bleed us free from love
Bleed us free my fantasy
Free from the shackles of faith
Free from the sickened literature
Free from the shadows of tears
Bleed us free our fantasy

Crumbled walls will set me free
This pain you feel is legendary
Inscribed in stone you bleed us free
Bleed us free

Begging, and pleading your desperate tears wipe slow
Await the final exit, the gates are soon to close
Burden free you die, I live my life as a new
The ways of flesh are a promise to me, bleed us free our fantasy

Begging, and pleading, your desperate tears wipe slow
Await the final exit, the gates are soon to close
Burden free you die, I live my life as a new
The ways of flesh are a promise to me, bleed us free our fantasy until death

Tearing his way to the sun
His vision is still unclear to me
Begging for the prophecy
His ritual's written in stone
Inked in hardened blood
Ancient rites now bleed us free
Free from the ways of our race
This untold prophecy
