

Oh, doesn't it hurt to know the boys tell lies to get their way and the girls are left alone?
Can't you pick up the phone?
Did you now want to show?
The true feelings will end this game before anyone could ever know
before anyone could ever know

I knew what you meant
I know why you decided
to say it how you said it,
and I can't win or fix myself again
So deal with my imperfections

Hey, do you now want to stay?
If I told you that I missed you now would the bullshit get in the way?
Would you not want to play?
Do you know what you'd say?
You'd say nothing and close your eyes and then both of our hearts would break and then everybody's heart would break

I knew what you meant
I know why you decided
to say it how you said it,
and I can't win or fix myself again
So deal with my imperfections

You're no better than me (besides your beauty)
So don't act like I am some kind of freak
You're no better than me (besides your beauty)
And I know on the inside you're a creep

Cause I knew what you meant
I know why you decided
to say it how you said it,
and I can't win or fix myself again
So deal with my imperfections
