

Now That You're Home

Man Overboard

Now that you're home, you know I want to be with you

Wherever you roam, I need you and you need me too

No matter how far, I'm saying your name every day and finding out that this place is now just like a dream I had

Let it go back to the way it was again, I'm gluing up the paper scraps so they once again spell out the name of the place I'm in- with you

Find a way back to the place we were before, I'm thinking that it's just so dumb to keep living like the whole world owes us something more - we do

Now that you're home, I think that I should be with you but still I feel alone

I really think you need me too no matter how far

I'm saying your name all the time

I'm finding out this place is now just like a dream of mine

I've been on the run and now it seems like all the happiness is gone - you made it go away

You've been on the run, do you feel more than human on the run?

Why'd you make it go away?
