

Born for This

Manafest

War time coming
Crews get gutted
I go hundred
Yeah I done it
What, who wants it
Tell them I'm ready
I'm yall's envy
About to get heavy

Lighting, thunder
Armageddon
You'll never pull me under
I've been destined
You'll never stop me
There's no question
The resurrection
I was born for this

Make it loud, you'll hear the sound
Line up and knock them down
So let the lion out
I'm coming for ye now
Born for this, born for this (Hey)

Make it loud, you'll hear the sound
Line up and knock them down
So let the lion out
I'm coming for ye now
Born for this, born for this (Hey)

Born for this, born for this
Born for this, born for this

Weaponize my mind
Can't stop the grind
Watch me as I
Ride the sky
Cold blooded
They running
Hold the throne
I was born for this

Lighting, thunder
Armageddon
You'll never pull me under
I've been destined
You'll never stop me
Cause I was
Born for this, born for this (Hey)

Make it loud, you'll hear the sound
Line up and knock them down
So let the lion out
I'm coming for ye now
Born for this, born for this (Hey)

Make it loud, you'll hear the sound

Line up and knock them down
So let the lion out
I'm coming for ye now
Born for this, born for this (Hey)

Make it loud, you'll hear the sound
Line up and knock them down
So let the lion out
I'm coming for ye now
Born for this, born for this

Make it loud, you'll hear the sound
Line up and knock them down
So let the lion out
I'm coming for ye now
Born for this, born for this (Hey)
