

When you see me comin' flying down the road
You know I ain't afraid to lay it down
Yea got me some leather. Leather is my skin
Black n chrome flashin' through the town.
Some call me the WARLORD 'cause I'm a GOD-DAMN bad machine, young n hungry, not too proud n mean

Ride, ride, ride, I'm the WARLORD of the road,
Riding, riding, riding, ain't never growin old.

Take what I want and I go where I please Got the world right by the balls. This world ain't big enough to keep me down. Yea we're livin' in a sick world. The man on the T.V. said we got lotsa trouble overseas, well what the hell do I care? Think they care about me?
Stop sending money send em all a bomb.

Ride, ride, ride, I'm the WARLORD of the road,
Ridin, ridin, ridin, ain't never growin old.

Born to live in the fast lane on a chopped up
Harley-D, smell that oil and high test gasoline.
Never got a shortage of girls to share my seat.
Well they all want to know what people say is true,
You know, get a biker started n he'll drive all damn night. Well hold on honey cause this ride's for a ride.

Ride, ride, ride, ride, ride, ride, ride
I'm the WARLORD of the road.
Riding, ridin, ridin, ain't never growin old.
