

Love Won't Get Any Better

Marc Anthony

Look what you do to me
Oh girl I must admit that this is new to me
And I never thought that love could come so easily
Till you opened up my eyes to how it was suppose to be

I never know that love could be so pure and gentle
And all I see love was never quite this simple
It was for me so lonely and so temperamental

Holding you is the safest place no doubt about it
Kissing you makes me wonder how I live without it
Wanting you is as natural as natural can be
Love won't get any better

Finally I hold my head up high 'cause you belong to me
And catching myself smiling over everything
You should know that I am proud to have you next to me

I never know that love could be so pure and gentle
And all I see love was never quite this simple
It was for me so lonely and so temperamental

Holding you is the safest place no doubt about it
Kissing you makes me wonder how I live without it
Wanting you is as natural as natural can be
Love won't get any better

Girl I'm in love with you, I live to kiss and touch you
I always knew you'd be the one to run to
I say I do and girl you know I mean it
'Cause having you, living you, trusting you it's all I wanna do

Holding you is the safest place no doubt about it
Kissing you makes me wonder how I live without it
Wanting you is as natural as natural can be
Love won't get any better

Holding you is the safest place no doubt about it
Kissing you makes me wonder how I live without it
Wanting you is as natural as natural can be
Love won't get any better
