Heartbeat

Marcus & Martinus

You said, "Why am I holding on, baby?" Ooh. I would never back down.

Are you walkin' out of my life?

Saying you really don't love me. Ooh.

Baby, you don't mean that.

You remember all that we had

I took it for granted that you loved me the same But I gotta keep on talking Listen to my heartbeat, beat, beat Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone So I put you in a song Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat

I know I haven't been the best lately. Oh.
And I really know now I should give you all of my time. Yeah.
You really do deserve better. Oh.
Gotta get you somehow.
Can we start over again now?

I took it for granted that you loved me the same But I gotta keep on talking Listen to my heartbeat, beat, beat Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone So I put you in a song Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat

Why am I holding on, baby? I would never back down. Are you walkin' out of my life?

So listen to my heartbeat, beat, beat Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"
Oh, saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone So I put you in a song Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat

Saying, "Do you love me, me, me?"

But I'm lying here alone So I put you in a song Beside my heartbeat, beat, beat
