

Korewa

Marié Digby

Lay low
Your time will come to show them what you're made of
This life
Goes far beyond the furthest light you see

Follow the path you lead
You'll understand eventually
Listen to the wind blow through the trees
Let it surround you

Korewa, korewa
Attempt to see through that lie, through that lie You'll have to stand up on your feet when you're knocked to the ground
They'll try but they can't keep you down

You may not know it but you are a king
No need for a crown
Be strong, hold on to what you believe
Don't compromise, open your eyes

Korewa, korewa
Attempt to see through that lie, through that lie
You'll have to stand up on your feet when you're knocked to the
They'll try but they can't keep you down

We are more than what you see here
Tangling all together

Listen to the wind blow through the trees
Let it surround you

Korewa, korewa
Attempt to see through that lie, through that lie
You'll have to stand up on your feet when you're knocked to the
They'll try but they can't keep you down
Korewa, korewa
Attempt to see through that lie, through that lie
You'll have to stand up on your feet when you're knocked to the
They'll try but they can't keep you down
