

One Man Woman

Mario

It's still cold in the middle of the night when you slammed it
You're wonderin' why you're still here
Just to feel somethin', yeah
Need a little bit of light to clarify you in the right place
Shinin' right in your face
But it's hard for you to find it

If you've played the game of "Who-Plays-Who"
You don't have to worry about who plays you
I know you been lookin' to change your view
You see what you need right in front of you

It only takes one man, one man, one man, woman
'Cause you're a one man, a one man, a one man woman

I ain't perfect, but I can love you better
You'll be ready for me when you get better
Watch the pieces of a puzzle fit together
It feels good naturally (Yeah)
You can't hold him tight while you're reachin' for the real thing
I can teach you how to feel things
I can't wait for you to spread your wings

'Cause we won't play the game of "Who-Plays-Who"
You don't have to worry when I'm with you
I'll carry all my weight to heal you too
I know you been lookin' to change your view

It only takes one man, one man, one man woman (One man woman)
'Cause you're a one man, a one man, a one man woman (Ooh)
It only takes one man, one man, one man woman
'Cause you're a one man, a one man, a one man woman

(And you're one man)
(Said, and you're one man)
(Said, and you're one man) 'Cause you're the only woman
(Said, and you're one man) Yes, baby, special and only one
(Said, and you're one man) Yes, baby, you're the woman, hoo
(Said, and you're one man) You're, you're only one
(Said, and you're one man) Oh, baby, only need one
(Said, and you're one man) Only, only one
(Said, and you're one man) You only did one
(Said, and you're one man) Yeah, 'cause you're the only woman
(Said, and you're one man) Oh, hey baby
(Said, and you're one man) Woo

It only takes one man, one man, one man woman (One man woman)
'Cause you're a one man, a one man, a one man woman (Ooh)
It only takes one man, one man, one man woman
'Cause you're a one man, a one man, a one man woman, yeah
