

Please Don't Fall for Me

Marit Larsen

Whenever you need someone to tell you to slow down on the drinks Whenever you had a little too much Whenever you need an alibi for all your rooked schemes or need an escape just because Whenever you lost a job or you just down a cigarette Whenever you're stuck, tell me what you need I'll be the cure for all your heart but darling don't forget that at whatever you do, don't fall for me

'Coz if your heart is set on something that it's not suppose to be
If your eyes are looking for something, you're not suppose to see
I'd rather turn around, turn you down, no matter how much I'd hate
to leave
So whatever you do, please don't fall for me

Maybe I've underestimated everything we've got Maybe I'm cold, maybe I'm not Maybe I'm too afraid to take a risk on something good, but if it was right, maybe I would

'Coz if your heart is set on something that it's not suppose to
If your eyes are looking for something, you're not suppose to see
I'd rather turn around, turn you down, no matter how much I'd hate
to leave
So whatever you do, please don't fall for me

If your heart is set on something that it's not suppose to be (not suppose to be)
If your eyes are looking for something, you're not suppose to see (not suppose to see)
I'd rather turn around, turn you down, no matter how much I'd hate
to leave
So whatever you do, please don't fall for me

Don't fall for me

Whatever you do, don't fall for me, don't fall for me
