

The Circles

Marit Larsen

I can see you coming round the bend
I can feel it coming on again
I'm trying hard, trying hard to believe you

I wanna tell you it's not invain
I wanna tell you it's worth the pain
I'm trying hard, trying hard to believe you

Didn't we just both agree
That the circle could never complete
It's an honest mistake
I'm barely awake to deceive him

If you are waiting for stars to align
It's never gonna happen in this lifetime
So keep waiting, keep waiting, I'm trying hard to love you

Are we ever gonna draw the line
Is there any way to change your mind
'Cause I'm trying hard, I need you
I'm trying hard to leave you
Then I'm trying hard to feel you
I'm trying hard to keep you
