

Give Me the Man

Marlene Dietrich

[these lyrics are copyright-protected and not to be found online, this transcription is based on the words that did reach my ears]

Give me the man
who does a thing
does a thing to my heart

I love the man
who takes me
into his hands
and gets what he demands

And when we're alone
by moonlight
under a big palm tree

Oh give me the man
who does a thing
does a thing to me

Give me the man
who does a thing
does a thing to my heart

I love the man
who takes me
into his hands
and gets what he demands

And when we're alone
by moonlight
under a big palm tree

who does a thing
does a thing to me
