

Immortals

Marnie Stern

I'll come and find you
All the gods hang around where you are Open mouths beg for them, how bizarre.
Oh the strange, it launched a thousand realms of wings
And what's dangerous, it turned to other things.
Forever. Forever.
Immortals don't die
I'll come and find you
All my hero's bold ideas, well they have gone
Broken up and split into a thousand songs.
Their shapes could make it clearest who I'd want to be
And the dangerous, it turned to other things
Immortals don't die
Only I could save her.
