

Acts of unspeakable violence against innocent life.
Your ignorance leads to my fight.
Senseless destruction of nature's beauty.
Useless violation of all its purity.

You cover the crime.
You are a part of it.
And now you condemn me.
And label me a terrorist.
Acts of liberation.
The protection of darkness.
Seems to be their only chance.
For a life in dignity.

A life defined by torture.
A life defined by pain.
They will never see the sun.
There will never be a dawn for them.

You set profit over existence.
You set money over everything.
Your ears are deaf to their cries.
And your eyes are blind to their demise.

BORN - TO - DIE
BORN TO DIE - BORN TO BE KILLED

You consume, the products of mass murder.
So you are part, of their demise.
