

You Can Get Your Lovin' Right Here

Martina McBride

You're still busy, always busy
That's okay, cause baby that's what you do.
That's just like you.
Always runnin', after something,
I try not to get up in your way.
But I've come to say

When you cool down your wings
And you need something real...

You can get your lovin' right here, baby
Anytime, oh anytime.
You know my arms are open baby, waiting
Till you're mine, all mine.
And when you slow down, really slow down
You can get your lovin' right here, baby

The world can give you everything
You're looking for and workin' for, is true
It'll come to you.
Never try to stop your dreams or clip your wings
Or ever hold you back,
You know I'm not like that.

But the world can never give you
What I can give you...

You can get your lovin' right here, baby
Anytime, oh anytime.
You know my arms are open baby, waiting
Till you're mine, all mine.
And when you slow down, really slow down
You can get your lovin' right here, baby

You can get your lovin' right here, baby
Anytime, oh anytime.
You know my arms are open baby, waiting
Till you're mine, all mine.
And when you slow down, really slow down
You can get your lovin' right here, baby

You can get your lovin' right here, baby
