

I Wish I Didn't Love You So

Marvin Gaye

This is a sweet song of sorrow living for tomorrow

Little girl, don't you know
I wish I didn't love you so my love for you should have faded a long, a real long time ago yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Oh-ho I wish I didn't need your kiss tell me, why must your kiss torture me & drive me crazy like this?
(do it baby; don't do it baby)

I should be smiling by now (I'm gon' find somebody) with some new, fine, tender thing (who really, really loves me) I should be smiling by now with my heart on the mend

And when, when I try (everytime I do) something in my heart (I ain't lying) says my life still depends on you I can't get you out of my head
I still got to depend on you I wish, I really wish I didn't love you so

I wish, I wish, I wish, oh baby
I wish, I wish, I wish, oh baby
I didn't love you so much
