

In the Morning

Mary J. Blige

Baby when this all began
We said that love would never end
Some time has passed
We settled in
And know the shadow of darkness is hoverin'
Yeahhh
Tell me what happend?
You started changing up and you and me are actin' so different
I know that I love you.
And your in love with me, thats what you say, but I just can't believe it.
Yeah we disagree, fuss and fight, we get it wrong more then it's right.
Yeah we make mistakes, and fix mistakes but never even seeing eye to eye
But when the dust clears its settled, and its all said and done.
When the night breaks and day finally comes....

Will you love me in the mornin'? (mornin' mornin')
After the evening will you need me?
Will you love me in the mornin'? (mornin' mornin')
Now that the suns up will you give up?

I agree it's different.
What once was, just ain't the same.
No
But... weren't you expecting this?
See when it's true love there will be some bitterness
Yeahhh
Now you so distant.
I know I'm not the woman that I was but you're not the man you were... ohh
But if you say you love me when you standing up and still in love
It shouldn't even shake your world

Yeah we disagree, fuss and fight, we get it wrong more then its right.
Yeah we make mistakes, and fix mistakes but never even seeing eye to eye

But when the dust clears it's settled, and it's all said and done.
When the night breaks and day finally comes....

Will you love me in the mornin'? (mornin' mornin')
After the evening will you need me?
Will you love me in the mornin'? (mornin' mornin')
Now that the suns up will you give up?

I know things ain't the way you supposed to be it's ok.
We'll get throught this (baby, it's worth it)
Sometimes we have doubts and love just ain't perfect
So dont let go... just...

Love me in the mornin'? (mornin' mornin')
After the evening will you need me?
Will you love me in the mornin'? (mornin' mornin')
Now that the suns up will you give up?

Will you love me in the morning? (hey hey hey)
Now that the suns up... will you give up? (hey hey hey)

After the evening will you need me? ...love me in the morning...

Dont give up on me... just love me...
