

Back To The Sunshine

Master Blaster

Maybe you are still around
In a different part of town
Near in hand and yet so far away
Even if I knew just where
Calling out would be unfair
You and I don't have no more to say

Pump-pump-pump-pump it up

Still I fear you
I don't know (and I miss you so)
I have nothing left to do (what can I do)
Every moment I'm alone
There is no place I'm at home
Like I used to be with you

Get your hands up, people

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Should I never let you go (so easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should I never let you go (so easy)

Yeah, Master Blaster
How you feeling?

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Should I never let you go (so easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should I never let you go (so easy)

Looking back, I must confess
I said "no" and I meant "yes"
And you started to believe me
I admit that I was wrong
Come on back where you belong
Don't know why you had to leave me

Still I fear you
I don't know (and I miss you so)
I have nothing left to do (what can I do)
Every moment I'm alone
There is no place I'm at home
Like I used to be with you

Get your hands up, people

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Should I never let you go (so easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should I never let you go (so easy)

For the floor, don't rock no more (rock no more [?x])
Yeah, Master Blaster

Back to the sunshine of your love
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Should I never let you go (so easy)
Back to the sunshine of your eyes
Now I have to realize
Should I never let you go (so easy)
