I remember when You were a mess Said we'd look back then On all of this

You hide it in the bush And you cry in your cup I've picked you up And knew just what to do

You remember when
We were happy again
Just to be friends
But all good things must end

How I lied on one dark night Said you'd hold it against me For the rest of my life

I remember it well I remember it well I remember it well So well, so well

I remember when
When we'd walk down saint John's street
Before the trees grew tall
Before their fruits were ripe
But now you're like
Some very rare wine
Bottled up and the grapes
Cut from the vine

I remember it well
I remember it well
So well, so well
I remember it well
I remember it, I remember it
I remember it so well
