

Bowing Down

Matt Redman

I know You love to crown the humble
Pouring out grace for the broken heart
You bless the meek, You meet the lowly
Lord, as I bow, lift me to You

I keep on bowing down, bowing down
Keep on bowing down, what else can I do?
I keep on bowing down, bowing down
What else can I do to give it all to You? Hey

I'd like to be one such believer
Keeping my knees firmly on the ground
Well, I'd like to tread humbly before You
Lord, as I bow, lift me to You

I keep on bowing down, bowing down
Keep on bowing down, what else can I do?
I keep on bowing down, bowing down
What else can I do to give it all to You? Yeah

Do You smile when You see
A humble believer on their knees?
And, my Lord, will You be pleased
To look upon me
To look upon me?
Oh, I'm bowing down, bowing down
I'm bowing down, bowing down
Oh Lord

I know You love to crown the humble
Pouring out grace for the broken heart
You bless the meek, You meet the lowly
Lord, as I bow, lift me to You

I keep on bowing down, bowing down
Keep on bowing down, what else can I do?
I keep on bowing down, bowing down
What else can I do to give it all to You? Yeah

Keep on bowing down
Keep on bowing down
Keep on bowing down
Lift me to You
Lift me to You

Keep on bowing down
I'm down, I'm down
Keep on bowing down
Down, down, down, down

Keep on bowing down
Lift me to You
Lift me to You

Keep on bowing down
I'll keep
Keep on bowing down

Oh

Keep on bowing down
Bowing down
