Why? Why do you love me?
What have I done to deserve you lately?
If the poorest ones could feel this energy,
They need not fear the cursed son nor the devil's night.

There I lay with warmth watching over me.

The favored son on whom fortune smiled upon.

Why? Why do you want me?

With a past like mine I'd rather love and lose than fall in lin e.

There I lay with warmth watching over me.

The favored son on whom fortune smiled upon.

Why? Why do you want me?

With a past like mine I'd rather love and lose than fall in lin e.
