

Drunk and Disappointed

Matthew Ryan

John's in the bathroom scared to death
Once he went under he couldn't catch his breath
On top of a trash can looking for an escape
He looked past the window up towards the milky way

How did you get so drunk and disappointed?
Ain't nothing here to pull you through
How did you get so drunk and disappointed?
The worst you'd fear is coming true, it's coming true

He parked his Lincoln underneath the trees
About a quarter to nine he walked inside the Applebee's
And nothing was moving not even the sky
Johnny wanted a lot of things but Johnny didn't want to die

How did you get so drunk and disappointed?
Ain't nothing here to pull you through
How did you get so drunk and disappointed?
The worst you'd fear is coming true, it's coming true, it's coming true

And on the programmed speakers above
Cher was singing, "Do you believe in life after love?"
So he slid from the window out onto the stars
And for a moment he floated above the trash cans and cars

How did you get so drunk and disappointed?
Ain't nothing here to pull you through
How did you get so drunk and disappointed?
The worst you'd fear is coming true, it's coming true, it's coming true, it's coming true

All I want, all I want
All I want, all I want
All I want, all I want
All I want, all I want
All I want, all I want