

Too Soon To Tell

Matthew Ryan

She said be quiet, be still
She said I'm not here to kill
I'm not here to maim
Or to give you a new name

She took my hand in her hand
She said, "I hope you understand
'Cause I'm asking please say
Please I'm asking won't you say?"

But you don't want the truth
And though you say that you do
I can see it in your eyes
I see it in your eyes

That you don't want the truth
And though you say that you do
I can see it in your eyes
I see it in your eyes
