

Something Greater

Matthew West

One day we were strangers
Ain't it crazy how a single moment
Changes life as you know it
And now we've got the same last name
Thought I was moving to Nashville
Just to sign a record deal
But my reason changed when I saw her face

Do you ever get the feeling
That there's something greater happening here
Do you ever get the feeling
That there's something greater happening here
It's like our hearts are a part of a bigger story

Have you ever seen the ocean from the shore
Ever stood under a blanket of burning stars
And tried to count 'em all
Did it make you feel small
Have you ever felt peace in the middle of pain
Witnessed a miracle the doctors say they can't explain
We think we're in control, but are we in control

Do you ever get the feeling
That there's something greater happening here
Do you ever get the feeling
That there's something greater happening here
It's like our hearts are a part of a bigger story

It's beautiful, it's tragic
It's something more than magic
It's the laughter, it's the tears
It's the road that led us here
It's the majesty, the mystery
It's a billion heartbeats symphony
Like a river to the ocean
One hand sets it all in motion

Do you ever get the feeling
That there's something greater happening here
Do you ever get the feeling
That there's something greater happening here
It's like our hearts are a part of a bigger story

Six pounds ten ounces
I'm holding perfect in a little pink blanket
And I thought I moved to Nashville
Just to sign a record deal
