

You Give Me Love

Maverick Sabre

Ooh yeah yeah yeah

Overwhelmed by your sincerity
I have a friend in you, you have a friend in me
And as I, as I walk these roads I'm not alone
You open these doors like this is, this is my home

And you give me love, so pure and so free
And you gave me all the little things that I could ever need
And you give me love, and planted your seed
And even through the rain your smile inside will last with me

These streets of gold so much untold, blessed by the sun
You touched my soul, you showed me warmth, more than enough
This place that I have never been before
You took me in without even a thought
I thank you for my place in your heart yeah

And you give me love, so pure and so free
And you gave me all the little things that I could ever need
And you give me love, and planted your seed
And even through the rain your smile will last with me

Oooh I yeah yeah yeah
Oh I never knew this was this good
And I never knew this felt this good darling, I said

You give me love, so pure and so free
And you gave me all the little things that I could ever need
And you give me love, and planted your seed
And even through the rain your smile will last with me

Don't you know I
Don't you know I
Said you give me love
Said you give me love
I said you give me love

Said you give me love so pure and so free
And you gave me all the little things that I could ever need
You give me love, and planted your seed
And even through the rain your smile inside will last with me

(You, you give me love)
You give, you give, you give
(You, you give me love)
You give, you give, you give
(You, you give me love)
I said you give me love
