Woke up in a dream
Seeing Things that I've never seen
Every Colour so heavenly
And I could not look away

Woke up in a dream
I don't even know where it leads
But I know what's ahead of me
And it's beautiful Beautiful

I see it all in

When I fall asleep
I wake up in a fantasy
And I'm where supposed to be
But I know I can not stay

The Clouds in my eyes part
And I see a hundred million stars
I feel like I'm born again
In Colour Colour Colour vision

And it's beautiful and it's beautiful
