

Without A Woman

Maxi Priest

You can talk about all the places and all the things you've seen a man do
But I guarantee there's no replacing a heart
That runs deep for you

We love hard
With a strength that a million people couldn't move
With all the money in the world, diamonds and pearls
Means nothing if I don't have you
This is a man's world
But it wouldn't go a day
No, it wouldn't go a day
Without a woman
We can conquer the world
But it wouldn't mean a thing
No, it don't mean a thing
Without the love from a woman
A woman, a woman, a woman

Listen now
When you need some love and affection to keep you going through
If it's tenderness love that you need, yeah
Oh, we can do that, too, yes

'Cause we love hard, with a strength
That a million people couldn't move
And with all the money in the world
All the diamonds and pearls
Means nothing if I can't have you
This is a man's world
But it wouldn't go a day
No, it wouldn't go a day
Without a woman
You can conquer the world
But it wouldn't mean a thing
No, it wouldn't mean a thing
Without the love of a woman
A woman, a woman, of a woman

Oh, just to have you in my arms
It's like heaven, heaven to me
And then you know that it's worth it
'Cause love is the answer
Love is the key
This is a man's world
But it wouldn't go a day
No, it wouldn't go a day
Without a woman
We could conquer the world
But it wouldn't mean a thing
Without a woman
You could conquer the world

Wouldn't mean a thing
Won't mean a thing
