

We're Gonna Try Again

Maywood

We're Gonna Try Again lyrics by Maywood

We're gonna try again, feel so strong.
We just can't go wrong, not this time.
We're gonna try again, because I feel the love we share is real
So, don't give up, remember,
I'll be standing by.
We're gonna try.
(Oh, yeah)

Baby, if my love for you
We're Gonna finally get you through.
I guess we're gonna make it somehow.
There's a place in the sun
and it's there for everyone.
A place where love will find us,
waiting right behind us.

Listen to the birds how they sing
and the joy that they bring.
I guess I never heard it before.
Close your eyes, take my hand and let me be your friend.
All is forgotten and forgiven.
Baby, let's start living
