

Karma's A Bitch

Medina

I heard you say once say
You'll be brighter than I ever will
I heard you say that one day
You'll accomplish more than every way.

Maybe you will
I'm happy for you, I cannot suppress that
'cause I'm a good woman, good woman
Not the kind of type to let you fall back
(ah nah nah).

What comes around goes around
I'm easy inside because I know you now
Not worried about you no more
'cause karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.

What comes around goes around
I'm happy inside and I'm better now
Not worried about you no more
You get what you get and it's beautiful.

Yeah karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.

The other day, someone told me
You're too proud to face it
One of these days someone's
Gonna tell you to your face that
(ah nah nah)
Oh, that you'll never make it

'Cause faking it won't get you that far
And making it is working hard
I'm hoping you see it one day
I'm hoping you see it.

What comes around goes around
I'm easy inside because I know you now
Not worried about you no more
'cause karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.

What comes around goes around
I'm happy inside and I'm better now
Not worried about you no more
You get what you get and it's beautiful.

Yeah karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.

I used to love you,
I don't really like you
I'm not above you
But I'm feeling bitter somehow.

I used to love you
I don't even know how
I came across you
'cause you just a run around.

I used to love you,
I don't really like you
I'm not above you
But I'm feeling bitter somehow.

I used to love you
I don't even know how
I came across you...

What comes around goes around
I'm easy inside because I know you now
Not worried about you no more
'cause karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.

What comes around goes around
I'm happy inside and I'm better now
Not worried about you no more
You get what you get and it's beautiful.

Yeah karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.

You get what you get and it's beautiful.

Yeah karma's a bitch, and it's beautiful.
