

Head Crusher

Megadeth

It's time to take your last walk in this world before your journey begins underground.
Not before we torment you from here, sent straight to hell!
Shortest order in between.
Begging for mercy you're all alone, unable to handle the pressure.
Before its mortification!
Now let the torture begin!

Death by the Headcrusher
Head crusher!
Death by the Headcrusher!
Wow!

Got a ripping torture device for those who fail interrogation,
The most painful technique ever known,
People search for the worst
The stuff that's in exploration.
Beaten, broken, in bloody wreck
Bagging hits off the waste its payback death
It's much too late.
Now let the torture begin!

Death by the Headcrusher
Head crusher!
Death by the Headcrusher!

On your knees, prisoners, take your positions
Place your face forward into the restraint
Your head slowly caves in from the compression
You'll faint to black out from the infernal pain

Way to stay as long as the sky is blue.
You'll see how to break it loose; try to make your way out.
When in doubt, cutting through like broken glass,
seeing through, impregnates the sky, battery clouds,

There's nothing you can do!
