

Hold on to the Ones You Love

Meghan Trainor

Wish I Knew
Why You Left
Now I sit and hope for the best
And I know that is might be too late
But Please don't walk away

I may have lost
but I don't regret
Yes I try and try, but I cant forget

And I know that it's probably be too late,
But PLease don't walk away

(Chorus)
Hold on, to the ones you love
Cause they may soon be gone
Hold on, to the ones you love
Cause they could Soon l be gone

I would climb mountains just to see your face
Follow the eagle that's flying your way

I would do it all
Yes if I could, I would, yes I would do it all

It's been long
It's over now
It's so hard not to miss, couldn't be found
And yes I know I know it's too late
Why'd you go away?

Hold on, to the ones you love
Cause they will soon be gone
Hold on, to the ones you love
Cause they will soon l be gone
