

Hindsight Bias

Mekong Delta

This lurking fear
a frozen tear
that's alive

Time to finally see
no one is free
time that we cast off
the chains of slavery
to live in liberty

All what have been all what I've seen
walked through the times thought it was mine

See this marching soldiers
In frozen nights
All they know where to go to spread holy fire
this molten picture
draft of time
human stricture
endless crime
errors in wasting
all their lives

Again, again
eternity wynts more
'til time stands still
what for
all restore

Creeping like a curse
dashing all life

Time to finally see
time that we cast off
to live in liberty

With mindless pain
frozen in my veins
happened all before must be once more

Created as a dark desire in ageless nights
sailing soul
no selfcontrol
feels like barbed wire
scattered fragments
draft of life
godless segments
lost in hive

what for
all restore

lost forever
trapped in time
sleepless dreaming
all of mine
