

Blame It on Me

Melanie C

Makeup running down my cheeks
Lying here in disbelief
Blinded me so easily
You're messing with my energy

Don't really know just how to feel
Like I loved a you that wasn't real
We went from friends to enemies
Haunted by the memories

Turns out you were the poison
Said I'm hearing voices
Said it's paranoia
Now I know your poison
Can you hear the voices
Filled with paranoia

Why don't you just blame it on me again
Wide awake but you're sound asleep again
If it works for you then I'll take the heat again
Running outta people you can call your friend
So why don't you just blame it on me

(Why don't you just blame it on)
(Why don't you just blame it on)

Now it is so clear to see
Your dark and twisted fantasies
Only liked me when I'm weak
Trying to be my remedy

Turns out you were the poison
Said I'm hearing voices
Said it's paranoia
Now I know your poison
Can you hear the voices
Filled with paranoia

Why don't you just blame it on me again
Wide awake but you're sound asleep again
If it works for you then I'll take the heat again
Running outta people you can call your friend
So why don't you just blame it on me

(Why don't you just blame it on)
(Why don't you just blame it on)

Why don't you just blame it on me again
Wide awake but you're sound asleep again
If it works for you then I'll take the heat again
Running outta people you can call your friend
So why don't you just blame it on me

(Why don't you just blame it, blame it, blame it, blame it)
(Blame it on me)
