The Seashores of Old Mexico

Merle Haggard

I left out of Tucson with no destination in mind I was runnin' from trouble and the jailterm the Judge had in mind And the border meant freedom, a new life, romance And that's why I thought I should go And start my life over on the seashores of old Mexico

My first night in Juarez I lost all the money I had One bad señorita made use of one innocent lad But I must keep on runnin' it's too late to turn back I'm wanted in Tucson I'm told Yeah, and things'll blow over on the seashores of old Mexico

Two Mexican farmers en route to a town I can't say Let me ride on the back of a flatbed half-loaded with hay Down through Durango, Colima, Almiera Then in the Manzanillos Where I slept in the sunshine on the seashores of old Mexico

After one long siesta I came wide awake in the night I was startled by someone who shadowed the pale moonlight My new-found companion, one young señorita Who offered a broken hello To the gringo she found on the seashores of old Mexico

She spoke of Sonora and swore that she'd never return For her Mexican husband she really had no great concern But she loved the gringo, my red hair and lingo That's all I needed to know Yeah, I found what I needed on the seashores of old Mexico

Yeah, she loved the gringo, my red hair and lingo That's all I needed to know, ha ha Yeah, I found what I needed on the seashores of old Mexico
