

There's Somebody Else On Your Mind

Merle Haggard

There's laughter and a band playing loud
But you don't fit in with the crowd
And you're only with me killing time
There's somebody else on your mind

We're dancing and you're holding me tight
But the words to the song isn't right
They're singing 'bout old lonesome time
There's somebody else on your mind

There's somebody else I wish I could be
'Cause there's somebody else that you want more than me
And you're only with me killing time
There's somebody else on your mind

There's somebody else I wish I could be
'Cause there's somebody else that you want more than me
And you're only with me killing time
There's somebody else on your mind
Yeah, there's somebody else on your mind
