It Waits

Metal Church

In your eyes a veiled disguise No surprise Now it waits for you

Into the fray it went away Or so they say Still it waits for you

Still inside the great divide Is growing inside There it waits for you

Alone I pray for all who say They've lost their way And it waits for you

And it waits for YOU!

Out of the night, into the light of dawn There's nobody here, all that you love is now gone